

30th Week of Ordinary Time

Jesus clarifies for us the link between love of God and love of neighbor. God loves us so intensely and personally. As God loves, so are, we are called to love each other. Matthew 22:37, 39 tells us, “Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” Our love of God is expressed in our love for each other. We are reminded, that the gifts we offer are symbolic of our life. The collection and the bread and wine that represent our lives, will be transformed by God’s Spirit, as we are called to be the body of Christ. When it is hard to love someone or to care about them, we can turn to Jesus and ask for help. May we hear Jesus say, “Do unto others as I have done unto you; for I am compassionate.” By what we pray and do, may the Lord give us a share in Christ’s life. May our lives reflect the song: Love one another as I have loved you. This is my will, my one command, that love should dwell among you; that you should love as I have shown that I love you. (John 15:12-17; James Quinn, SJ and Steven R. Janco; OCP)

Celebrating the Cloud of Witnesses

RACE – RESILIENCE – RENEWAL

An in-depth educational experience as we strive to inspire the Christian faithful through the witness of Catholic candidates for sainthood.

1. A focused dialogue in the areas of racism, sexism, poverty, authentic worship, and more.
2. Celebrate how they triumphed over tragedies and learn how can we do the same.
3. Learn the stories of these heroic men and women who overcame racism and discrimination in living out an authentic witness to the Catholic faith.
4. Lessons will be shared on how to incorporate their spirituality in our lives, as we continue their legacy, and support their causes for sainthood.
